Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: examiner could find no teachings in the prior art that disclosed each and every element of applicant's claimed invention. More specifically, the prior art failed to disclose: "passing messages between the first and second proxies to establish at least one parameter governing data exchange between the first and second devices; and conducting communication between the first and second devices in accordance with the at least one parameter by passing messages at least directly between the devices" as recited in amended Claim 1, or "exchanging messages between the first proxy and a second proxy entity for the second device to determine at least one parameter governing direct communication between the devices using the wireless link; and conducting direct communication between the devices via the wireless link in accordance with the at least one parameter" as recited in amended Claim 24, or "negotiating with a second proxy acting on behalf of a second information device to establish at least one parameter governing interaction between the first and second information devices; and sending to the first information device from the proxy the at least one parameter established during the negotiation to be used to conduct direct communication between the first and second information devices" as recited in claim 33.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Hassan Phillips whose telephone number is 571-272-3940. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Fri (8am-5pm).
